Putin's War Geopolitics in the 21st Century

Kremlin strategists posit Russia as a Eurasian power facing what they term the "Atlantic world of North America and the European Union" In this view, the Atlantic alliance is embarking on a course of the globalization of economics, culture, and politics, with the latter leading to wars to create supra-national organizations.

By Joseph Miranda

Potential for an ISIS attack in the US

An analysis of military threats posed to the United States by the terrorist organization ISIS.

By Ty Bomba & Gilberto Villahermosa

30

The Indo-Pakistan War, 1971

India and Pakistan went to war in 1971, six years after a major but inconclusive clash over Kashmir. The 1971 war would see Pakistan lose control over their eastern province.

By John D. Burt
