Six Day War:
Israel vs. the Arabs, June 1967
The Israelis achieved one of the most stunning military victories of the modern era from 5 through 10 June 1967. The reasons for that victory are rooted in the much bigger picture of the Cold War era in the Middle East.

Analysis:
The Egyptian Army, 1956-73
Despite overwhelming numerical superiority in men and equipment, Egypt was never able to gain a military victory against the Israeli armed forces in the wars fought in 1956, 1967 and 1973. Here's our analysis of the reasons for those failures.

Operation Savannah:
Task Force Zulu & the Rommel of Angola
The Angolan Civil War lasted from 1975 to the end of the Cold War. With just a little more success, this South African operation might've worked to preempt that bloodshed.
