Holy Land:

The Next Arab-Israeli War
The Middle East today has entered into its greatest period of instability since the 1979 Egyptian-Israeli peace accord. Here's our analysis of the potentials for a new regional war.

Thailand's Southern Insurgency

A large—and largely unreported—Islamist insurgency is underway in Thailand's southern provinces today. Here's our analysis. It's a conflict that may soon grow to be bigger and bloodier.

Analysis: The Six-Day War in Global Context

The Six Day War of 1967 still resonates in today's world. It established Israel's de facto borders, as well as being a stunning military victory over the Arab "confrontation states," which fundamentally (and seemingly permanently) altered the regional balance of power.
